
Serial Number For Embrilliance Thumbnailer

After installation is complete, navigate to the Applications folder and launch Embrilliance Thumbnailer. You will see this window: enter your serial number and ... done! You can see that there are two new buttons on our screen. The first is to launch Thumbnailer, the second is to enable/disable Thumbnailer. If you have enabled Thumbnailer, you can work with Thumbnailer and Thumbnailer. You can use both at the same time. But since the programs are installed in different locations, you will have to click on the Thumbnailer button in your window every time you run Thumbnailer.exe.
